Using only their guts, wits and suggestions from the audience Impro Theatre creates a completely original Shakespearean story for each performance. Improvisation at its most literary and engaging.

TWELFTH NIGHT

Set in the make-believe country of Illyria where "nothing that is so, is so," Twelfth Night is a madcap comedy filled with mistaken identities, cunning plans, and miraculous discoveries. Twelfth Night is directed by Amy Louise Sebelius.

JULIUS CAESAR

In one of the earliest of his Roman plays, Shakespeare explores the opposing dynamics of democracy and tyranny. Julius Caesar is a swift and enthralling political thriller where ambition and patriotism go head to head. Julius Caesar is directed by Stephanie Coltrin

Shakespeare by the Sea has been presenting quality, admission-free performances of Shakespeare classics throughout Los Angeles and Orange counties since 1998. These free performances have become a tradition for thousands of Los Angeles families. Last year's attendance reached near 20,000 total audience members.

Shakespeare by the Sea's mission is to bring new, contemporary and classic works to underserved, culturally diverse audiences in order to ignite imagination, promote literacy and encourage artistic expression. Partnerships with local city organizations, as well as generous donations, make these free performances possible.
