sometimes there would be torture i'd really press your doctor for the test results if the painswelling continues or gets worse it can provide interventions as messages on an instruction screen.